

Elected Representatives Role Description

Asking You! want people with learning disabilities to have a louder voice at the Learning Disability Partnership Board.

These people will be the Elected Representatives

Elected Representatives will go to the Partnership Board.

They will share what people have spoken about at People's Parliament

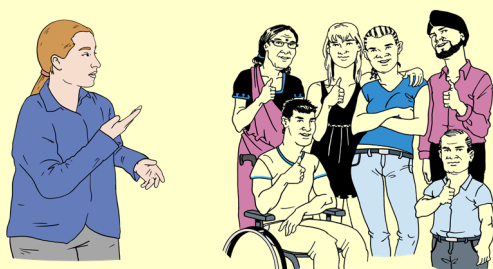

They will be in charge of making people's voices heard.

This means that the things we talk about at People's Parliament are heard by the right people.

More information and Skills

There will be a pre-meeting before every Partnership Board meeting where we will talk about what we are going to say.

To be an Elected Representative, you will need to:

Be good at speaking to a large group of people

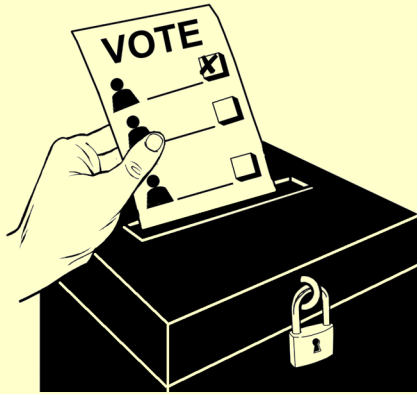

Be able to attend meetings in person and online

Be passionate about making things better for everyone with a learning disability.

Volunteering Roles

Elected Representatives will be voted for at People's Parliament.

The next election will be:
Tuesday 24th September

The person to speak to about this is Imogen Day from Asking You!

She will be the manager for the Elected Representatives.

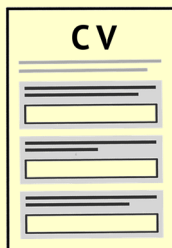

Elected Representatives will meet at different places, including The Advonet Group's office at 26 Roundhay Road.

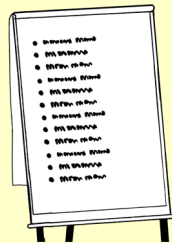

Some meetings will be online.

What will it be like?

The Advonet Group
Providing Independent Advocacy

You will have a supervision every few months to discuss how you are doing.

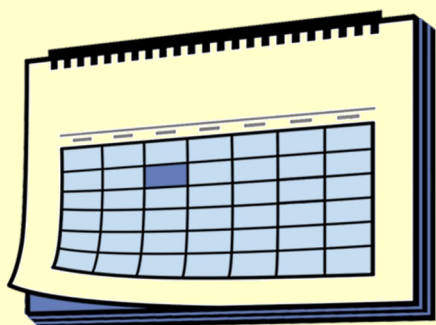

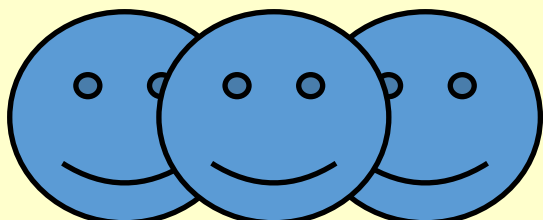

You will be part of important meetings about services for people with learning disabilities in Leeds

You can put this role on a CV when you apply for a paid role and Advonet will give you a reference.

You can get training through The Advonet Group.

You will have your expenses covered.

How long will it take?

There will be 3 Elected Representatives at one time

They will hold the role for 1 year.

They will need to commit to the 4 Partnership Board meetings and 4 pre-meetings held the week before.

They may be shadowed by someone else. They could be someone with a learning disability, a councillor or a professional.
