

Steward Role Description

Asking You! want volunteers to support with events we organise and go to.

These people will be called Stewards

Stewards will help make sure that events are run well.

They might sign people in, make teas or coffees or tell people where they are meant to be going. There may be other jobs.

They will represent Asking You!

There will be a pre-meeting before each event to talk about what everyone is doing.

Skills

To be a Steward, you will need to:

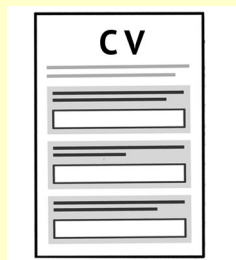

Be good at following instructions

Like talking to new people and strangers

Able to be friendly, polite and professional to people

It would be useful if you were able to read and write and if you could make hot drinks by yourself.

What will it be like?

Stewards will be asked to volunteer at People's Parliament, Picnic in the Park and other events.

Pre-meetings will be held at Advonet offices.

You will have a supervision every few months to discuss how you are doing.

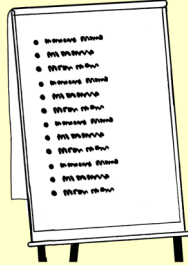

You will be more involved in Asking You! events

You can put this role on a CV when you apply for a paid role and The Advonet Group will give you a reference.

What will it be like?

The Advonet Group

Providing Independent Advocacy

You can get training through The Advonet Group.

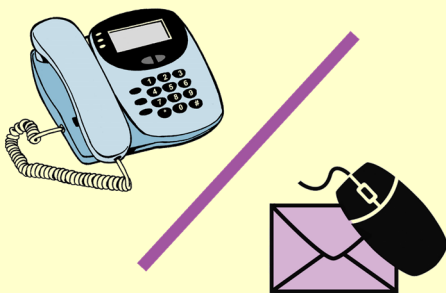

You will have your expenses covered.

You can be a volunteer steward for as long as you like

You do not have to help out at every event but we want you to help out at some of them
